Testimony

A Little that was matched one year ago has improved his academics after working tirelessly with his Big Brother.

"I was able to get on the Honor Roll through the help of my Big." - Hayden

Pearls & Ties:

A collaborative program with Sidney Middle School. 5th grade students attend seven sessions that focus on confidence while in the presence of positive role models.

Opportunity School:

Opportunity School is geared towards students ages 16 and up. Students who transition to Opportunity School focus on obtaining credits required for high school graduation or after.

School-Based:

One-to-one mentoring that occurs during the school day at a specified time and location. School-Based programs operate in Shelby and Darke County. SC: Emerson, Longfellow, Northwood, Sidney Middle School, and Jackson Center. DC: Greenville, Versailles, Tri-Village, and Ansonia.

Community-Based:

Matches that go out in the community together and enjoy activities they both are interested in. These matches consist of an adult-aged Big Brother/Sister and child-aged Little Brother/Sister

Hannah (Big Sister) Annabelle (Little Sister)

Stuart (Big Brother) Zaydynn (Little Brother)

YOUR SUPPORT IMPACTS THOUSANDS

Dear Mission Partners,

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Shelby & Darke County fully embraces the term "partnership," and we are incredibly grateful for the passionate community members who link arms with us to serve our youth. Whether you give of your time, talents, or treasures, you make a lasting, positive impact on the hundreds of children who participate in our programs. But, the impact doesn't stop there. You help change families, schools, neighborhoods, and more.

It is my hope that when you read through the statistics in our impact report, you will see that your partnership has created a ripple effect across our community, changing it for the better! You have embraced our vision to help all youth achieve their full potential. On behalf of our board and staff: Thank You!

With deepest gratitude,

Katie Price, Executive Director

Tarissa Reel (in yellow) with BBBS staff and board member. Tarissa walked across Ohio to raise funds and awareness for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Shelby & Darke County.
